

Canadian Theological Society

C O N S T I T U T I O N

As amended June, 1984

1. NAME The Society shall be called THE CANADIAN THEOLOGICAL SOCIETY.
2. PURPOSE The purpose of the Society shall be to promote interest in the study of theology in Canada
3. MEMBERSHIP Any person who is willing to advance the purpose of the Society may apply to become a member, provided that the said person complies with such conditions as may be prescribed by the Executive Committee.
4. OFFICERS The Officers of the Society shall be a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as may be appointed by the Society. These officers, together with such members as may be elected by the Society, shall form the Executive Committee. The Society may appoint such other Committees as may be deemed necessary to further its purpose.
5. ANNUAL MEETING There shall be an annual meeting of the Society. Other meetings may be arranged at times and places to be determined by the Executive Committee.
6. BRANCHES Branches of the Society may be organized at such places as may be arranged by its members. Regional meetings may be held from time to time.
7. FEE The Annual Meeting shall determine the fee structure.
8. FINANCE The Treasurer shall be responsible for the safe custody of all funds belonging to the Society, and shall submit an independently verified statement concerning such funds to the Annual Meeting of the Society.
9. BYE-LAWS The Society may make bye-laws to govern its proceedings.
10. AMENDMENT OF CONSTITUTION The Society may amend this constitution at any Annual Meeting, provided that the amendment is agreed upon by two-thirds of the members present at the meeting, and that the said amendment is consistent with Article 2 of the Constitution.